

H. M. WHITNEY

A complete roundup of Chinamen in Boston's Chinatown and in all the cities of eastern New England is being carried on today in the hunt for the seven Chinamen supposed to have snuggled into this city on board the Cunard liner Saxonia.

The authorities at Washington are impatient at the seeming ease with which the local guards were avoided, and the wires are kept hot with messages of inquiry. The Washington authorities say that if the two night inspectors, who were supposed to be on duty at the Cunard dock, failed to see the Chinamen climb down the ladder from the vessel, it is just as easy to suppose that large quantities of smuggled goods could be as easily landed here.

FLIES IN GALE: NEWPORT FORCED TO SQUIT

MEMPHIS, Friday, Aug. 13.—In the death and howling of the wind, the city of Newport, R. I., was today a scene of confusion. The wind, which had been blowing from the north for several days, today reached a peak of 40 miles an hour. The sea was running high, and the waves were breaking over the beach. The city was a scene of confusion. The wind, which had been blowing from the north for several days, today reached a peak of 40 miles an hour. BRIDES ARE PROMINENT IN SOCIETY NOW

By ELIZABETH ELLIOTT.
Our society, their present, whose and their future plans are naturally of much interest to us. One of the most interesting things among our many brides is Mrs. J. West Roosevelt who is now the guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Warner at their beautiful summer home at Lincoln. Mrs. Warner was formerly Roosevelt of New York and her wedding at the Oyster Bay country home of her mother was one of the most brilliant social events of the early summer. The Warrens are the family that has been in the country since the time of the Revolution and their home is one of the most beautiful in the country. Mrs. Warner is a very attractive woman and has made a delightful impression upon all who have met her.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baron (Florida) Toledo who are now abroad on their honeymoon are also in the country. They are to be married in Boston this week. The Baron family is one of the oldest in the country and their home is one of the most beautiful in the country. Mrs. Baron is a very attractive woman and has made a delightful impression upon all who have met her.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mann, Jr. (Mary) Astor East who are now in the country. They are to be married in Boston this week. The Mann family is one of the oldest in the country and their home is one of the most beautiful in the country. Mrs. Mann is a very attractive woman and has made a delightful impression upon all who have met her.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker H. Bagnall who are now in the country. They are to be married in Boston this week. The Bagnall family is one of the oldest in the country and their home is one of the most beautiful in the country. Mrs. Bagnall is a very attractive woman and has made a delightful impression upon all who have met her.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bagnall who are now in the country. They are to be married in Boston this week.
